DUKE? WHEN DID CARNEY JUIN тне

In 1970 I made an interview with Carney where he claimed this date to be June 16, 1927. His very first recording with Duke, he said further, was "What Can A Poor Fellow Do?" (Nov. 3, 1927). Now: Was not Carney in the band when the October waxings were made for Victor in 1927?!

ТНЕ

DUKE

On page 101, in Mercer's book "DE In Person", we can see a picture said to show Carney and Miley, August 1926. The poster in the picture shows "Thur. Eve'ng AUG. 12". Can this be verified to be in the year of 1926?

On page 74, in "Music Is My Mistress", is another picture from August, 1926 - this time however without Carney.

Commentaries, please!

DEMS comment: In a broadcast interview, in the 70's, Carney clearly state the date he joined Duke and the band to be June 26, 1927 (not June 16).

We can verify the date shown on the poster to be in the year 1926! However, Carney being a Boston guy is known to have hanged around the band every time they played the New England area. He was a great admirer of Hardwick and his sax playing. Thus it can be explained he is present on the picture without being a member of the orchestra at that time.

The picture in "Music Is My Mistress" shows, as claimed, Rudy Jackson, Percey Glascoe, Fred Guy, Toby Hardwick, Duke, Greer, Edgar Sampson, Joe Nanton and Bubber Miley. Studying the picture we dare say it is not Rudy Jackson (can it be Mack Shaw?), and it is not Edgar Sampson (nor is it Harwey Boone, or Leroy Ruthledge - and certainly not Carney).

For the actual period in 1927 here are a few known facts: 20Jun27: DE and the band begun another New England tour. The personnel: BM LM. JN, OH RJ ??, DE FG WB SG.

In Ulanov's book "Duke Ellington": "... In June of 1927 the band went up to do some one-nighters and play another summer at the Charleshurst Ballroom at Salem Willows. ..." "Harry Carney was in, Otto was out (temporarily, "very temporarily"). Harry joined in time to play Salem Willows with the band that summer."

From "Down Beat, 27Nov58", we cite from the article "Carney Chronicle": "Our first date was at Nuttings, opposite Mal Hallet's band. ... It was the first time I ever worked with Tricky Sam and Bubber Miley, and it was my greatest thrill."

Later in June, 1927, we know the personnel to be: BM LM, JN, Nelson Kincaid HC RJ, DE FG WB SG.

POLJAZZ Z-SX 0673 "LAST TIME" (reported in Bulletin No. 79/1): Cut 4 on side A stated as being "Unknown No.2" is Money Johnson doing a tribute to Louis Armstrong, playing "Hello, Dolly!". "Unknown No.2" on side B is "Goof".

Also, although Wild Bill Davis is listed as an instrumentalist, he does not appear. Johnny Coles is listed under Puzony (trb) whereas he should have been listed with Trabki (tpt). Harold Minerve is incorrectly listed as playing Oboj whereas this should be Flute. (Ouarles)

J9/5 por 5 GIANTS OF JAZZ GOJ-1020: In the DEMS comment (see previous bulletin) the first date is given as 28Sep45. This is false. Correct date is, as stated on sleeve, 28oct45.

Cat Anderson is said to be soloist on "The Last Time I Saw You". This is rather surprising since it is Jimmy Hamiltor on clarinet throughout! (Aasland) 28oct45 bc begins with "Things Ain't What They Used To Be" not "Take The A Train" (sleeve & label).

10Nov45 starts with "Take The A Train" (theme), not giver on sleeve & label. (H-U Hill) 10Nov45 is taken from a DWD-41 transcription. though not complete. In order to make a noice-free LP it was first put on tape to allow noises to be cut out. The effect ir this case a peculiar sensation because the continuation ir the rhythm is sometimes notably disturbed. Otherwise it is (DEMS comment) a good product.

Α DRUM IS А WOMAN DIFFERENT VERSIONS

Additional information on the Columbia sessions Sept 17, 24, 25, 28, Oct 22, 23, and Dec 6, 1956, for "A DRUM IS A WOMAN" mentioned in DEMS Bulletin 79/5 (p.2): "Version 1" (of Bull79/5) has been issued on Col CL-951 and CBS(H) 65185. "Version 2" has been issued on Col CL-951, CSP JCL-951, Philips B-07253-L, Philips BBL-7179 and CBS/Sony(J) SOPV - 90. "Version 2" must be regarded as the final version, since "Version 1" duplicates track 1, Side 2, "ZAJJ" "A DRUM IS A WOMAN", part 2. The information on all sleeves is identical and gives no indication of the differences. The following will help to identify the differences between the two various tracks on part 1 (Side 1):

T.ack 2: "RHYTHM PUM TE DUM"

Version 1: The track starts with narration by DE preceeded by a short piano sequence and followed by the music with chorus and orchestra, and ends with the same type of piano chords as the start (2:34).

Version 2: The track starts with drums and maraccas as an introduction to the chorus and orchestra, which is the same as in Version 1. The music ends with the drum introduction to the narration by DE (B), which is different from Version 1. Not only are the words different, but there is also some singing ("Carribee Joe") by Joya Sherrill accompanying DE in Version 2, which merges directly into the next track ("What Else Can You Do With A Drum")(2:54).

Track 4: "NEW ORLEANS"

The versions are very similar, the differences in the musical background being almost imperceptible. The differences are easiest distinguished in the narration by DE.

Version 1: After 17 s of DE talking his words are being sucked up over the horizon into fizzy bundle of grape-colored clouds. We see a boat, or is it a barge, coming into dock? Yes, it is a barge, and on it there's a throne, and on the throne is the King - What King? Why, man, that's the King Of The Zulus! (fanfare) - As barge ties up ... (narration continues) ... to one woman, a Madame Zajj." (Here the narration is interrupted by marching music for 10 s before DE continues) "There's something familiar about this woman. It seems we recognize her as someone we've seen before, somewhere, suddenly we realize the parade and the drumbeat had faded away and we look around to find that Madame Zajj also has dis-appeared." This sequence, including the marching music is entirely missing in Version 2. (Then follows the latter part of Track 5 "Hey, Buddy Bolden" and the first part of Track 6 "Carribee Joe" are missing in Version 1. Track 4 (3:10).

Version 2: After 13 s of DE narration his words are " ... being drawn up over the horizon into a fizzy bunch of grape-colored clouds. There is a boat or is it a barge coming into dock? It is a barge and on it a throne, and on the throne is a King. What King? Why, man, that's the King Of The Zulus! And next to the King, a drum. Ah, Madame Zajj again. (Fanfare) - As the barge ties up ... (narration continues) ... to one woman, a Madame Zajj." The track continues directly into Track 5 "Hey Buddy Bolden". Track 4 (2:24).

Track 6 (latter part): "CONGO SQUARE"

There are only a few small variations in DE narration and the music is the same.

Version 1: The last sentence of DE narration goes "..., and that the sun, a neon-rose lollipop is being sucked up over the horizon into a fizzy bundle of grape-colored clouds." (5:29). The last track is then continued on piano leading into "Zajj" "A Drum Is A Woman" Part 2. This piano sequence (0:12) is not found in the introduction of "Zajj" on track 1, Side 2 on either version.

Version 2: The last sentence of DE narration goes ".... the sun, a neon-rose lollipop is being drawn up And over the horizon into a fizzy bunch of grape-colored clouds." (5:23)

DE NARRATION (Q, Version 1

Once there was a boy named Joe, who owned a drum, a primtive drum. And on the head of the drum were inscribed letters ZAJJ. And this drum wanted Joe to believe that she was the fragile thing that is a woman and with his zeal and her amenability they could arrive at the point of of making beautiful rhythm together. They together travel and give rhythm into the world. But Joe was in love with the jungle and wanted to stay with the jungle. So the drum disappeared and took all of her rhythms with her saying, "There are other Joes, and one Joe can make rhythm as good as another."

Version 2 (Joya Sherrill) DE NARRATION (B),

Once there was a boy named Carribee Joe (Carrabee Joe). Spoke with the animals in their jungle slang (Carrabee Joe). His heartbeat was like bongos, and he sang every song they sang. One day he found an elaborately fabricated drum (Carrabee Joe), and when he touched it, it actally spoke to him saying, "I'm not a drum, I am a woman. Know me as Madame Zajj, African enchantress. I can make you rich and famous. Together we can travel and make beautiful rhythm through the world. But Joe was in love with the jungle, the virgin jungle, God-made and untouched, and with the jungle he had to stav. The drum beat up a Once there was a boy named Carribee Joe (Carrabee Joe). and with the jungle he had to stay. The drum beat up a storm screeching "I am the one and only Madame Zajj, but there are many Joes, and one Joe can make rhythm as well as another." So she hopped a trade wind, and away she went to Bar in search of mother Loc Bar in search of another Joe. (O Wilson)

From J Hoefsmit we've received a letter with many different ways to clarify things on this Empire Room questions plus valuable observations concerning a bunch of stay. The June 2 dating is simply another error caused by AFRS transcriptions. One portion deals with the ETs using the American way writing a date compared with the European. 2/6/49 means February 6, not 2 June.

As once pointed out by Jerry Valburn there was one stay. The band was frequently heard over ABC in the Hollywood area. Thanks to Kaiser, who found some contemporary air shots, we are able to date some transcription material for both the "Jubilee" and "Just Jazz" series. A few more broad-

WHO IS NAE BARNES?

In Dance's book "The World Of DE", page 7, Duke tells about Charlie Irvis: " ... When he was with me we weren't making many records, and I don't know if he was on those with Bubber Miley and Mae Barnes. The same Mae Barnes. She's still wailing!"

In the Brian Rust disco we can find 1) Fae Barnes, 2) Faye Barnes. The latter recorded two sides with Fletcher Henderson in 1924. (Can Fae and Faye be the same person?). Maggie Jones / Faye Barnes also recorded with Donald M Redmond, Sam Clark, Lemuel Fowler, Alabama Joe (Roy Smeck), St. Louis Rhythm Kings, Clarence Williams, and with Henderson musicians as well as with an own combination. Rust hasn't mentioned Miley nor Irvis among the participating musicians. (We know, however, the Duke-associated Elmer Snowden and Louis Metcalf to have taken part in Maggie Jones and her Jazz Band, 1925-26). Maybe the following is the answer, mentioned in Rust's:

While we are on the HURRICANE subject (above) here is a contemporary review from a 1944 Down Beat issue:

DUKE ELLINGTON (Reviewed at the Hurricane, New York)

Everytime I've written a review on Ellingtonia, I've been so en-grossed in the jazz flying by, that I've forgotten to notice The Man himself. This last time though, I camped down for a whole evening and dug everything that Edward Kennedy threw around.

What a colorful apple! What a terrific entertainer! He doesn't make a mistake, and doesn't miss a crowd trick. From the way he a crowd trick. From the way he swirls his tails around the piano stool to the flourish as he takes his hands off the keys, EKE is putting on a tremendous show. Now with most people this would be extremely offensive. The word would go round the sporting circles that so-and-so was really a stinking musician and was covering it up by much making with hands, etc., also that he was too commercial to let live, and how did he ever get in live, and how did he ever get in union anyway? the

That charge obviously can't touch Duke. Plus the fact the showmanship is consummately pulled off, whereas most of these hand-wavers book like beauty parlor refugee,

But even more important, it's indicative of the Ellington sense of humor which prevades every-thing the diss. The night I heard him, there was a young lady singing his trange Feel-ing. It isn't an easy tune for any-one to sing, estimate with the Ellingtonian disproved and Webster running a wild gamut through the whole chorus. The young lady wastah, very bad. But Duke, who must have known this, gave ther a buildup that sounded like a new discorthat sounded like a new discovthe Met. Half-way ery for through you dig what's going on, and it keeps you in high fettle for the rest of the chorus. Comes an "art" dancer on the scene. Duke announces her, pointing out the resemblance be-tween what she does and the highest phases of Greek terpsichore-never batting an eyelash all the while.

all the while. Then prances the chorus line. Duke's careful delineation of all the virtues of these admirable young ladies is for the books. All the visiting firemen take him seriously, and it's only when you listen closely that you dig the terrific satire terrific satire.

The reason I mention all this is that you have to get this phase of the Duke if you're going to dig a lot of his music—written in the tongue-in-cheek mode. It's a relief to find a good man with a sense of humor, who isn't impressed with his own greatness.

pressed with his own greatness. Also of interest is that Duke isn't ashamed to sit for long periods of time and play rhythm with the band, not solos. I still claim 99 per cent of good band piano is playing good rhythm and Duke worries enough about the musical level so that he isn't the musical level so that he isn' afraid to look like a sideman during most of the dance sets. -mix Entry 41-16: "The heading CHAMBER MUSIC SOCIETY OF LOWER BASIN STREET has to be cancelled.

This was a NBC 'KRAFT MUSIC HALL' program, produced in Hollywood weekly with a house-band under the direction of John Scott Trotter.

NBC 'CHAMBER MUSIC SOCIETY OF LBS' was a program produced only in New York each Sunday with the house-band under Paul Lavalle and with Henry Levine's Octet." (H-U Hill) DEMS comment: As pointed out in the letter from H-U Hill, NBC had a special West Coast origination for the 'CHAMBER MUSIC SOCIETY OF LBS' program which usually came from New York. At This time, on a Monday, DE & JB were added to the show, backed by J.S.Trotter's Orch. & Chorus, as shown in the "Wax Works of DE", and consequently not to be cancelled.

There are many fantastic Duke collections throughout the world. Lately we've received splendid catalogs from two of the Continental Europe ones. The first arrived from ANDRE MAHUS, 126 Rue de la Convention, F-75015 PARIS, France, The size of the catalog is the same as the DEMS Bulletin's. There are 68 pages Ellington, 13 pages Basie, and finally 21 pages with miscellaneous Jazz Artists. It comes in a nice paperback fashion. The second catalog is from LUIGI SANFILIPPO, Via Leonardo da Vinci, 111, I-90145 PALERMO, Italy. This is a very handsome volume, 19 x 22 mm, in a plastic cover. It has 102 printed pages, Serious fellow collectors (tape-) might obtain copies from them.

We will also inform about the following very valuable publication, "JAZZ INDEX", quarterly issued, This excellent BIBLIOGRAPHY OF JAZZ LITERATUR IN PERIODICALS AND COLLECT-IONS has Periodicals, Collections, Hard-to-get literature, Jazz (from A to Z), Blues, all indexed. DEMS BULLETIN 80/1

IN HASTE:

According to many reports there has been nothing but silence from the Meritt Society lately. We wrote a letter to the Society trying to find out what actually might have happened. Just in time before going to print DEMS received messages from Meritt telling that by the middle of January all Meritt orders were shipped out completely. We also received a special Meritt Newsletter supposed to go out to Meritt members earlier still awaiting ordered records to be shipped. This was last December. It was however never sent out, because the "primus motor", Jerry Valburn, was hospitalized for about two and one-half weeks. To avoid an operation he was put through many tests and then and afterwards exposed to different strong medications, with side effects. From the Meritt Newsletter in question, we think we should extract the following:

THE IMPORTANT THING IN A CLUB IS TO BE RESPONSIBLE. THE PRODUCTIONS MUST BE GOOD ONES AND THE SERVICE TO THE MEMBERS MUST ALSO BE OF A HIGH LEVEL. UNFORTUNATELY, I DID NOT FORSEE THE PROBLEMS THAT WE HAVE RUN INTO AND THE MOST IMPORTANT THING TO ME IS TO KEEP MY CREDABILITY WITH ALL OF YOU. IT HAS ALWAYS BEEN MY INTENTION TO SHIP A MEMBER'S RECORD ORDER WITHIN THE WEEK THAT THE ORDER ARRIVES. THOSE OF YOU RECEIVING THIS LETTER ARE PROBABLY WONDERING WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO THE RECORDS THAT YOU HAVE ORDERED AND PAID FOR BUT HAVE NOT YET RECEIVED. MY PURPOSE HERE IS TO EXPLAIN THE DELAY AND ALSO TELL EACH AND EVERY ONE OF YOU WHAT I INTEND TO DO ABOUT THE SITUATION AND WHAT I. WILL BE DOING FOR YOU PERSONALLY.

THE PRESSINGS: WHEN WE STARTED THE SOCIETY, MY PRESSING PLANT NEVER DELIVERED THE FULL AMOUNT OF RECORDS ON THE FIRST THREE ISSUES. THESE WERE THEN BACK-ORDERED AS RE-PRESSING. PLEASE LET ME POINT OUT THAT I DEAL WITH A VERY LARGE AND MODERN PRESSING FACILITY. AMONG THE MAJOR LABELS THAT THEY PRESS ARE DEUTCHE GRAMAPHONE AND CBS CLASSICAL PLUS RCA, PICKWICK, CASABLANCE ETC ETC. WHEN I PUT IN ALL THE MASTERS FOR MERITT'S FOUR THROUGH SEVEN AND BLU-DISC 1002, I DID NOT KNOW THAT MY PRESSINGS WOULD BE HELD UP FAR BEYOND MY ANNOUNCED SCHEDULE BECAUSE THE PLANT WAS TIED UP WITH ADVANCE CHRISTMAS PRESSINGS FOR THE MAJOR COMPANIES. SO, AS A RESULT, I GOT ALL THE RECORDS VERY LATE INCLUDING THE RE-PRESSINGS ON THE FIRST THREE.THIS WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN SO BAD EXCEPT,

THE MAILERS: FOR THE PAST FIVE WEEKS THERE HAVE BEEN ABSOLUTELY NO CARDBOARD RECORD MAILERS AVAILABLE IN THE NEW YORK AREA. I PURCHASE THEM IN LARGE QUANTITIES, AND IN SPITE OF MY GOOD RELATIONSHIP WITH THE FACTORIES, THERE JUST WERE NO MAILERS TO BE HAD. YOU COULD CALL THIS A "STUDY IN FRUSTRATION". THANK HEAVEMS, THE 'FAMINE' IS OVER. I HAVE BEEN PROMISED A DELIVERY OF ONE-THOUSAND MAILERS THIS WEEK.

In addition to the above we will mention there are plans for some sort of compensation, possibly in the form of a very special private record. Meritt and DEMS mebers will be informed later on.

There are extended future plans for the Meritt Society. Besides the already established MERITT and BLU-DISC labels, there will be still another one, UP-TO-DATE, strictly for Duke items!!!

Finally, from the newsletter partly reproduced above, we would like to add the very last lines:

IT IS MOST IND ORTANT TO ME, TO KEEP ALL OF YOU HAPPY AND CONTINUED MEMBERS. AFTER ALL, The success or failure of a record club is dependent on the support of the members. I in turn, will take every precaution to make sure that nothing like this happens again!
